JUDGE:

RE: Speaking Invitation
United States Claims Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit
Washington, D.C.
Convenient date - Wednesday or Thursday

On behalf of the law clerks of the United States Claims Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, David S. Dederick has invited you to be the guest of honor at an informal luncheon program at Tayloe House on a date convenient to you. Tayloe House is a historic building that is part of the National Courts Complex at Lafayette Park. The law clerks are flexible regarding format: you could give a prepared presentation, or choose a topic for discussion in a program lasting about an hour. The audience will consist of approximately 30 law clerks, judges, and staff.

The luncheon programs were initiated several years ago to bring distinguished speakers to talk on an informal basis primarily to the law clerks. Past speakers include Chief Justice William Rehnquist, Associate Justice Antonin Scalia, and columnist George Will.

Since you already have eight speeches scheduled for the winter and spring, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, a letter of regret is attached for your signature.

Dear Mr. Dederick:

I appreciate your invitation to speak at one of the luncheon programs for the clerks of the United States Claims Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. I would very much enjoy meeting with your group of young lawyers, but unfortunately my schedule for the coming months is such that I cannot make a commitment at this time.

I wish you and the other law clerks a very successful new year.

Sincerely,

/s/ William H. Webster

Dear Mr. Webster,

On behalf of the law clerks of the United States Claims Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, we would like to invite you to be the guest of honor at one of our luncheon programs. The programs are held at the historic Tayloe House adjacent to Lafayette Park during the lunch hour. They are relatively brief and informal. Law clerks from the Claims Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit will be attending this luncheon and will provide lunch for you. Should you accept this invitation, you may either present prepared remarks on a topic of your choice or proceed directly to a question and answer period, whichever you prefer.

This program was initiated some years ago to enrich experience at the court and will continue throughout our tenure here. Past speakers have included Chief Justice William A. Rehnquist, Associate Justice Antonin Scalia and other distinguished members of the bench, bar, administration and media.

If your schedule permits you to accept our invitation at any time in the future, please contact the Committee to arrange an appropriate date and time. Committee representatives can be reached by telephone as follows: David S. Dederick at 633-7282 or Craig Johnson at 633-0258. It would be a privilege to have you join us.
